Table Art & Event Designs will Display Pet Related Floral Sculptures at
The New York Pet Fashion Show on February 7, 2014.

New York, NY— Felicia C. Greenberg, the owner of Table Art & Event Designs and a New York based visual artist, is honored to announce the debut of her unique Floral Pet Sculptures on display at this year's New York Pet Fashion Show. On Friday, February 7, 2014, Felicia will celebrate her second consecutive year as a featured artist and decor designer for the New York Pet Fashion show. Her sculptures will grace the event runway and will also greet guests as they arrive. The event, which kicks off the esteemed Westminster Dog Show, will be held in the ballroom at The Hotel Pennsylvania, 401 Seventh Avenue New York, New York from 6:00 to 10:00 PM. This year's New York Pet Fashion Show theme, "Crown Jewels of Fashion & Rescue," is the perfect avenue for Felicia to unveil her enchanting displays, as her most recent pieces emulate dogs & other pets dressed to the nines in jewels, suits, and gowns.

Felicia Greenberg has gained widespread recognition for her meticulously detailed silk Floral Sculptures. Her creations come to life as she applies silk flower petals one by one to the wire figure frames she sculpts. With a theatrical influence and a love for art and flowers, Felicia creates charming displays with whimsical narratives. Creating both singular pieces, as well as tableaux scenes, her work conveys a surreal, beautiful quality, inspired by victorian elegance and often embellished with vintage fabrics and trims. Much like brush strokes on canvas, each of Felicia's magical pieces are highly unique, intricate, and ornate.

Felicia's work has been featured by several publications and media outlets including The Wall Street Journal, Newsday, Dan's Papers, CBS Television, Cable Broadcasts such as News 12 CT's

“Pet Talk” with Lauren Collier and nationwide radio shows such as “Talkin' Pets” and New York’s Apple AM970. Felicia’s work has been enjoyed by celebrities such as Christie Brinkley, Jill Rappaport, David Frei, celebrity chef Todd English, Jill Zarin, Maria Milito and other at various charity fund-raisers in New York City and The Hamptons. She has donated sculpted pieces to South Hampton Hospital, Samuel Waxman Cancer Research Foundation, Rock Can Roll Hunger Relief and others, and has designed for events by the AON Corporation, Oheka Castle, and the Humane Society of New York.

The New York Pet Fashion Show attracts dog lovers and Westminster Dog Show supporters from around the globe. This year The Mayor’s Alliance of NYC’s Animals will benefit and receive a portion of the proceeds to help them continue the wonderful work they do throughout the year. There will be pet fashion show contests, press, vendors selling exciting pet products and much more. Come and enjoy the event and support this great organization and the pets.

Felicia will be on hand to talk about her exciting artwork and floral displays. She welcomes you to inquire about seeing samples of her work in person, including the pieces she will display at the event, as well as her new gift line of pet breed likenesses and floral ornaments. She is looking forward to meeting everyone at the event!
